Beaver Creek Convenes at First, Chester

The Beaver Creek Association met at First FWB Church in Chester on Saturday, January 31, 2009. Everyone was welcomed to the meeting by Moderator Rev. Tim Hackett. A local gospel singing group called "Restoration" provided special music for the worship service. Greetings were brought by Dr. Don Hanna, son of missionary Reverend Carlisle Hanna. After his greetings, Reverend Carlisle Hanna preached the morning message from Mark 4 regarding "Sowing the Seed of the Gospel." After the morning worship service, the ladies at the First FWB Church served a wonderful meal.

True Life Conference Meets at Pine Grove

The True Life Conference met on Saturday, January 17, 2009, at the Pine Grove FWB Church in Jefferson, SC. The meeting was called to order by Rev. John Cody. The morning message was brought by Reverend Dan Hines. Calvary FWB Church in Gastonia, NC, was presented with the "2008 Conference Attendance Trophy." The Pine Grove Church provided a wonderful meal for everyone in attendance.

Central Association Meeting

The Central Association met on Saturday, January 10, 2009, at Wildwood FWB Church in Nichols, SC. Moderator Rev. Buddy Seay welcomed everyone to the meeting. Hispanic Director Rev. Rick Bowling shared a devotion from 2 Timothy 4. During the business session at his request Mr. Bennie Inman, long time clerk for the Central Association, requested to step down from the clerk position. He was replaced as clerk by his pastor Reverend Stephen Hyman. The Central Association will be further honoring Mr. Bennie Inman at their next meeting for his many years of service. After the business session, Dr. Don Hanna, the son of Missionary Carlisle Hanna, brought greetings to the conference, and Missionary Carlisle Hanna preached the worship service message. A DVD of Missionary Hanna's message can be obtained by contacting conference Moderator Reverend Buddy Seay at 843-455-7028.

South Carolina Conference Meeting

The two day annual South Carolina Conference meeting convened at Westside FWB Church in Johnsonville on Thursday and Friday, January 22-23, 2009. The meeting started on Thursday evening and concluded on Friday afternoon. Many people complimented the wonderful Thursday evening choir music by the Westside FWB Church. Evangelist Bobby Jackson (pictured above) was the guest speaker for the two day meeting. The evangelistic messages stirred the hearts of those in attendance to be more involved in being a witness as "ministers of the gospel." Moderator Theron Scott and host pastor for the meeting, brought the moderator's message from Romans 1:16 and 2 Corinthians 4:3-6. It was a wonderful message relating to the current shifting trends in Christianity today and our need to maintain faithfulness in the midst of these changes. The Westside FWB Church is to be commended for their kind hospitality for hosting this two day meeting.

Camp Meeting in the Carolinas

The Central Association held its annual "Camp Meeting in the Carolinas" on Thursday and Friday, January 29-30, 2009, at First FWB Church in Myrtle Beach, SC. The camp meeting started on Thursday evening with special music by "Sacred Ground" and preaching by Evangelist Jack Lassiter. On Friday, Rev. Tony Miles, pastor at Little Star FWB Church, and Evangelist Jack Lassiter brought the morning messages. On Friday evening, special music was provided by the "Rivertown Boys," and the evening message was brought by Evangelist Jack Lassiter. Pastor Wayne Snipes and the First FWB Church did a great job in hosting this year's "Camp Meeting in the Carolinas." A combined video recording of all the camp meeting services is available on DVD by contacting host pastor Rev. Wayne Snipes at 843-457-0825.

Fortner Accepts Associate at First, Inman

The First Free Will Baptist Church of Inman is proud to announce the addition of Rev. Sean Fortner to the staff as Associate Pastor. Sean graduated from Bob Jones University in 1998 with a B.S. Degree in Financial Management. He was previously employed with Boiler Tube Company in Lyman, South Carolina. Sean along with his wife, Dawn, and two children, Dylan and Kylie, reside in Lyman. Both Sean and Dawn grew up in the First Inman Church under the ministry of Pastor Earl Hendrix, and they also graduated from Inman Christian Academy. They have been very active in the ministry of First FWB Church. Sean has been fulfilling the role of Minister of Music for the past year, as well as having been a deacon for 6 years. Dawn serves as Vice President of the First Inman Ladies Active for Christ. She also assists Sean with the youth and other ministries. Dawn is the daughter of Larry and Kay McElrath who are active members of First FWB Church. Sean Fortner is the son of Shelby Hayes, also an active member of First FWB Church, and Clarence Fortner, Jr. of Saxon, SC. The church and leaders are very pleased to have this God called, capable and gifted person, fulfilling this position.

Greetings from the SC WAC Coordinator

I am looking forward to seeing all of the women of our state at our SCWAC state meeting on March 21, 2009, at High Point FWB Church in Lancaster. We have a great meeting planned, and our guest speaker will be Danita High, the new WNAC Executive Secretary. She is excited about meeting all of the wonderful ladies in our state. It is my opinion that we are one of the greatest states involved in the WNAC. Please partner with me in prayer for our SC WAC to participate in the opportunities God has given each one of us to serve Him. This has been a difficult year for many regarding our economy and physical problems. It is extremely important for us to come together to uphold one another in prayer and fellowship according to Hebrews 10:25. We need each other now more than ever, and we still have much work to accomplish for the cause of Christ before His return. I appreciate all of you and thank the Lord daily for the work you are doing to faithfully fulfill the "Great Commission."

In His Service, Pam Hackett

Mac Atkinson, Jr. Ordination

On Sunday, January 25, 2009, at 3:00 PM, Rev. Mac Atkinson, Jr. was ordained into the gospel ministry at Lebanon FWB Church in Effingham, SC. Rev. Mac Jr.'s parents, Mac and Mildred Atkinson, have faithfully attended Lebanon FWB Church since Mac Jr. was 10 years old. Mac Jr. is the oldest of 5 children. Mac Jr. and his wife Leslie have three children, Mac III ("Mackie" - age 8), Avery (age 7), and Ella Claire (age 3). During the ordination service, special music was provided by Leslie Atkinson and also Mandi Davis. The ordination message was brought by Rev. Buddy Seay. The ministerial charge was brought by Rev. Mike Jones. The presentation of the ordination Bible was by Rev. Todd Smith, and the ordination prayer was led by Rev. Chris Fanin. Rev. Mac Atkinson, Jr. serves as the pastor at Lebanon FWB Church, and Rev. Mike Jones serves as the Associate Pastor at Lebanon Church.
